

Flowable Fill

-Flowable Fill is a product designed to be used as a back fill. Flowable fill is thought to be mainly used to backfill around piping and drainage, but can be used wherever backfilling is needed. The material is designed to set up and not settle, but able to be removed if needed.

*Flowable Fill is being used to backfill around a culvert pipe on a county road in Putnam County.